New Hampshire Hunter Jumper Association

General Rules

1. All riders who wish to accumulate points must be members of NHHJA in good standing. Horse owners who wish to have their horse accumulate year end points must be members.
 2. Hunter/Jumper and Equitation points for year-end may be accumulated only at NHHJA run shows (not host shows). Points for NH Medal classes may be accumulated at NHHJA shows and as well as shows hosting NH Medal classes that are in good standing. Points will be finalized two weeks after posting – no exceptions. Discrepancy must be submitted in writing to point secretary before the deadline.
 3. Prize money will only be awarded in classes of with 3 or more entries. Classes can run with less than 3 entries but no prize money will be awarded.
 4. NHHJA is an affiliate of NEHC, and as such, abides by current NEHC rules and regulations.
 5. The exhibitors' age for competition will follow NEHC rules, age as of December 1. After the completion of NH Medal Finals, riders may compete and accumulate points in the NH Medal classes that they will be eligible for the following year.
 6. An amateur is defined by NHHJA in accordance with USEF rules (www. https://www.usef.org/compete/resources-forms/rules-regulations/rulebook sections GR1306 and GR1307). NHHJA follows NEHC Rules which follows USEF rule defining professional and amateur.
 7. To vote with NHHJA, an individual member must be eligible to show as an adult the year the vote is taken. An individual is entitled to one (1) vote. A family membership is entitled to two (2) votes. A lifetime individual membership is entitled to one (1) vote. Membership must be paid in full for that year.
 8. Any individual having problems, concerns, questions, or suggestions about the NHHJA organization must contact the president of NHHJA in writing. Letters will be referred to the committee, and if applicable, an individual response will be sent. Any individual having questions about NHHJA and/or horse show RULES, should refer them to his/her trainer. If a trainer is unable to clarify, the TRAINER should contact the president of NHHJA for clarification.
 9. NHHJA shows will be run under a strict code of conduct. Members will be found in poor standing if any of the following occur:
 - A) Flagrant disregard of the rules
 - B) Failure to make good on insufficient funds within 60 days
 - C) Failure to pay any outstanding balance, including show fees and any damage/repair fees that have been incurred
 - D) The use of abusive or foul language
 - E) Disregard for the well-being of the horse, as deemed by show steward(s) and/or hired official(s).
- NOTE: If the association finds a member in poor standing... A) Points accumulated during the period in question will be revoked until the matter has been rectified. B) The Association will not renew or reinstate memberships until any outstanding funds have been paid.
10. Anyone operating ANY motorized vehicle (including, but not limited to, 4-wheelers, golf carts, mini bikes, scooters, farm utility vehicles) at any NHHJA show must have a valid driver's license.
 11. NHHJA will charge Members or payers a $100.00 fee in addition to original amount, for each check found by our bank to be returned for insufficient funds.
 12. All credit card transactions will be assessed a 3% convenience fee.
 14. Exhibitors will be financially responsible for any property damages caused by them, or their horse(s). Repair expenses will be billed accordingly, if not during the event, then immediately afterward. Failure to pay will result in suspension of membership until debt is paid in full.

NH Medal Classes Hosting Requirements

1. Shows wishing to host NH Medal Classes must submit application and proof of insurance a minimum of 10 days prior to the show date and must receive approval prior to running NH Medal Classes.
2. Dates of hosting shows will be posted on the NHHJA website.
3. There is no fee to host NH Medal Classes. Please use the term host/hosting rather than affiliate/affiliated.
4. Each hosting show must submit show results to the medal point secretary within 7 days following the show date. Failure to submit these to the medal point secretary on time will result in a $25.00 fine and may result in the loss of hosting ability.
5. Only judges rated by NEHC or USEF may judge NH Medal classes. Any exceptions must be approved by Board Committee prior to competition.
6. Only one class per medal division may be offered per show day, unless special permission by the Board is granted prior to the show.
7. Courses for Junior, and Adult medal classes must consist of at least 8 fences. Courses for Novice, Modified Children's and Modified Adult and Children's medal classes must consist of at least 6 fences. Children's Medal, Modified Children's Medal, and Modified Adult Medal classes may not include an in and out. There must be a safe area for warm-ups. Jumps must be well constructed.
8. At least 3 riders must complete the course in order for points to count.
9. In the event of insufficient entries, NH Medal Classes may be combined as follows. When combined, all riders must show over a common course, with fences set at their respective heights.
 - *NH Junior Medal & NH Amateur Adult Medal
 - *NH Children's Medal and/or NH Modified Adult Medal and/or NH Modified Children's Medal
10. Other than as listed above, NH Medal classes may not be combined with any other classes.
11. A horse/pony may only be ridden once, in any qualifying class and at NH Finals.
12. Testing is optional and at the discretion of the judge.
13. Riders do not need to be NHHJA members to show in NH medal classes at Host Shows, however, in order to accumulate points to qualify for the NH Medal Finals, a rider must be a current member of NHHJA. Riders may join the day of show.
14. Riders may ride in more than one NH Medal class, at qualifying shows as long as they are eligible per specs for each class. If a rider qualifies for more than one medal class, he/she must choose ONE medal class to compete in at NH Finals.
